Suggested Strategies for Read-Aloud Story Time

Apply the strategy that works best for the story you are sharing:

- Add another character to the story
 - Change the ending of the story
 - Create a different setting for the story
- Show the pictures without the words and have the children tell the story
- Show the words without the pictures and have the children draw the pictures
 - Discuss other ways to solve the “problem”
 - Give the story a “local” flavor
 - Add another adventure to the middle of the story
- Provide the beginning and middle of the story; have the children write the ending
- Ask what words describe each character and which character would you like to be and why
